Use PopSocket's original Pop Grip to hold your cell phone securely while texting and snapping photos. Extended, a Pop Grip becomes a media stand for watching videos on the fly.

The back of any smartphone provides prime real estate for maximizing brand impressions in full color. A Pop Grip can be used on most brands of phones or phone cases, and it can be moved easily using its repositionable gel. USB 3.0 connectors are easily distinguishable from their 2.0 counterparts by the blue color-coding of the ports. To realize the benefits of USB 3.0, you must have 3.0 ports on the device you're plugging into. USB drives are backwards compatible to 2.0 ports, however only 2.0 transfer speeds can be achieved.
